FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DJO Global Announces Departure of Chief Operating Officer

SAN DIEGO, CA, December 9, 2011 – DJO Global, Inc., a global provider of medical device solutions for musculoskeletal health, vascular health and pain management, today announced the resignation of Luke Faulstick, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Faulstick will depart DJO Global, Inc. in early February, 2012 to join Power Partners, Inc., a privately-owned power transmission manufacturer, as Co-owner, President and CEO. Mr. Faulstick has served as a member of the board of advisors of Power Partners, Inc. since 2003.

“Luke has assembled an award-winning team that is a driving force of continuous improvement within the Company. This team has successfully completed a number of operational initiatives over the past ten years that have streamlined our organization and reduced our cost structure,” said Mike Mogul, President and CEO of DJO Global, Inc. “With these initiatives behind us, we are well positioned to transition our operational leadership. We are grateful for Luke’s contributions over the years and wish him well in his new endeavors.”
